Get
SCOTT'S
Emulsion

When you go to a drug store and ask for Scott's Emulsion you know what you want; the man knows you ought to have it. Don't be surprised, though, if you are offered something else. Wines, cordials, extracts, etc., of cod liver oil are plentiful but don't imagine you are getting cod liver oil when you take them. Every year for thirty years we've been increasing the sales of Scott's Emulsion. Why? Because it has always been better than any substitute for it.

OWSLEY COUNTY. BOONEVILLE.

April 27.—W. Graham Walker, of Lexington, gave a lecture Thursday at the Court House, subject, "Dis, Dat and Tother." A very good crowd was out to hear him.—The Normal being taught by Prof. Campbell and Bro. Tom is progressing finely. Surely Owsley county's standard of education will be raised to a higher mark by the students of Booneville Academy and Berea College.—The Easter missionary services held at Clifty, Milltown and here were a decided success. Each one seemed to do his best.—Prof. Mart Brown, of Indianapolis, Ind., gave us a lecture Monday night, subject, "Ugly Pretties and Pretty Uglies." The Courthouse was filled with people from the town and surrounding country. Prof. Brown is a rising young humorist and cartoonist. We hope to see him back again.—Steve Gabbard was in town Monday night.—John M. Campbell and Miss Nannie Rose were quietly married at the home of the bride's father, Mr. L. C. Rose, Sunday, and at once left on their bridal tour.—Mr. Campbell is a prominent young merchant of Booneville. May they have a pleasant voyage thru life is our wish.—J. S. Napier and Leonard Wilson entered school Monday.—It is a good time to fish now, and Uncle Abel Gabbard fishes every day.—Clay Combs had a fine mule die last week.—We will soon have a telephone in town, which will put us in communication with all the surrounding counties.

TRIAL NEARING THE END.

Rebuttal Evidence Introduced in the Hargis Case.

Lexington, Ky., May 3.—The commonwealth resumed the introduction of rebuttal testimony in the Hargis case. Henry C. Hurst contradicted the testimony of "Fed" White, who testified for the defense. Hurst said he had a conversation with "Fed" White, in which the latter told him he heard Jim Hargis ask Anse White to go over to the courthouse during the hearing of the motion for bail for Tom Cockrill and "stand in with him." He said, in answer to a question by Attorney Lee for defense, that he felt unkindly toward Hargis and said this feeling dated from May 4, 1903, but he was not allowed to tell that the cause of that unfriendly feeling was the assassination of his brother-in-law, James B. Marcum. Bruce Little was next called and in contradiction of James Hargis, said he had never been a candidate for sheriff of Breathitt county, and his ill feeling for Hargis did not result from Hargis refusing to support him for sheriff.

FOR SABBATH BREAKING.

Kentucky Judge Places His Son Under Arrest.

Hindman, Ky., May 3.—Unique in the history of arrests in Knott county is that of County Judge Thomas Baker, who placed in jail his son Roy on the charge of breaking the Sabbath. Young Baker, who is aged 23, becoming intoxicated, resisted the arrest of city authorities. He fortified himself in his residence and defied them. Fearing that he would kill some of the officers, the warrant was placed in the hands of his father, who, being an officer of the law, shouldered a Winchester rifle and demanded his son to surrender. The son, realizing that if he fired on his father he would murder him, surrendered and was locked up on the charge of disorderly conduct.

BOARD OF VALUATION.

How It Will Arrive at the Value of Shares of Stock.

Frankfort, Ky., May 3.—The Kentucky board of valuation and assessment held that it would arrive at the value of shares of stock of national banks for purposes of taxation by taking the total capital, surplus fund and undivided profits and deducting from this the real estate of the bank. This does not allow for deduction of the value of government bonds held by such banks, for which they are contending. The matter will likely go into the courts.

Dies at the Age of 85.

Newport, Ky., May 3.—Henry Presenberg, 85, one of the oldest residents of this city, died at his home in Fifth street, near Brighton. He accumulated a fortune in the gold fields of California during the days of '49. He left several sons and daughters.

MRS. CECILIA STOWE,
Orator, Entre Nous Club.

176 Warren Avenue,
CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 22, 1902.
For nearly four years I suffered from ovarian troubles. The doctor insisted on an operation as the only way to get well. I, however, strongly objected to an operation. My husband felt disheartened as well as I, for home with a sick woman is a disconsolate place at best. A friendly druggist advised me to get a bottle of Wine of Cardui for me to try, and he did so. I began to improve in a few days and my recovery was very rapid. Within eighteen weeks I was another being.

Cecelia Stowe

Mrs. Stowe's letter shows every woman how a home is saddened by female weakness and how completely Wine of Cardui cures that sickness and brings health and happiness again. Do not go on suffering. Go to your druggist today and secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui.

WINE OF CARDUI

A GALLON OF GREEN SEAL PAINT

Is a gallon of heavy bodied paint and when thinned up according to directions on every package, is the most economical paint made. For Sale by Porter Drug Co.
